Course Synopsis

The Level 2 Community Sports Leaders Award is a nationally recognised qualification, designed to develop a persons skills of sports leadership. There are no pre-requisites, just an interest in sport and physical activity.

The aim is to train and equip course candidates with the knowledge, skills and ability to plan, organise and deliver a variety of sports activities and games.

Course candidates will develop their skills of Planning, Preparation, Organisation, Communication, Teamwork and Leadership through practically based activities, although you need not be an athlete to attend.

Candidates will also receive an Emergency First Aid certificate. All this for only £5!
